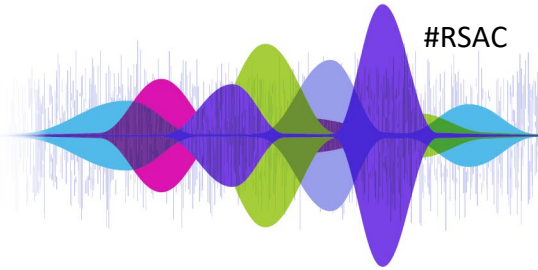
Building Your Own Ad Hoc Network



- First Step: You're at RSA, You've Taken the First Step.
- But, now comes the hard part: building deeper connections.
  - Don't just "Connect on LinkedIn" reach out, offer to assist.
- Every person in this industry has something of value to contribute.
  - That means you!
- When you share:
  - Don't share anything that will get you fired
  - Don't do anything with shared intelligence that will get someone else fired.
- In other words: Be a Friend!
